Dear Carol & Lawrence,

Thank you for taking the time out of your demanding schedules to meet with Haley's teacher. I appreciate, so much the work you are doing with her and the encouragement you offer. As you can imagine, it's heart-rending, at times, to see Haley struggle and not be able to 'fix' it. I know part of the reason she enjoys TLC is the positive affirmation she receives.

Thank you for working so hard for her success. I feel Bill and I are part of a team now and not struggling alone. What a relief!

Yours truly,
Karen
