DIRECTOR OF TOTAL LEARNING CENTERS TO SPEAK ABOUT FOCUS, ATTENTION WEAKNESSES, ADHD

WEXFORD, Pa. (June 14, 2010) — Dr. Carol Utay, executive director of Total Learning Centers (TLC), will be featured Wednesday, June 16, in “Spotlight on Pittsburgh” with Pittsburgh legend Jack Bogut. She will share in plain English new research on what improves attention without, or as a supplement to, medication. She will also present breaking news from the Academy of Pediatrics on which programs are now considered “evidence-based” for working memory training for individuals with ADHD.

Dr. Utay has been a strong proponent of Working Memory Training for several years via Total Learning Centers’ programs and has been training educators in the community on its appropriate applications.
